Minister to Discuss Protestant Reformation at Sunday Service

Rev. Heinrich W. Falk, a native of Hamburg, Germany, will address a special Reformation service Sunday evening at the First Lutheran Church at 7:30, according to Rev. Paul Wenske, pastor of the church.

The service will be under the combined sponsorship of the Methodist, First Christian, Evangelical Episcopal and First Lutheran churches of Torrance, the pastor said.

The Rev. Mr. Falk will speak on "Protestant Reformation—Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow."

Sunday's speaker received his education in philosophy and theology for the most part at the University of Berlin. After World War I he was chosen as an exchange student to study at the Hartford Theological Seminary in Hartford, Conn. He received his master's degree there.

After returning to Germany, the Rev. Mr. Falk taught in the Theological Department of the University of Giessen until 1931, when he entered the active ministry.

The German born minister returned to the United States in 1947 with his American-born wife and four children, where he toured throughout this nation and Canada in behalf of the National Lutheran Council for

Everlasting Punishment Christian Science Topic

The golden text of the Sunday Bible lesson on "Everlasting Punishment" in all branches of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, is from Proverbs: "The way of the Lord is strength to the upright; but destruction shall be to the workers of iniquity."

The subject sections include this verse from a reference: "The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering to usward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mary Baker Eddy says: "Through repentance, spiritual baptism and regeneration, mortals put off their material beliefs and false individuality."

Nazarenes Hold Revival Service

Rev. and Mrs. Wesley F. Crist, evangelist, musicians and chalk artists, are now conducting a revival meeting at the Nazarene church, 1501 W. Carson, each evening, except Saturday, from October 25, through November 5, at 7:30.

Sermons will be illustrated. Hymns will be pictured in color, and other attractive musical features will be presented by this talented couple. There will be two great services on Sunday.

Central Church Homecoming Day To Be Sunday

Sunday has been designated Homecoming day in the Loyalty Attendance Crusade which has been in progress at the Central Evangelical United Brethren church during the month of October, the pastor, U. S. Schauer, announced this week.

Members are being asked to gather and bring their families and other guests to the Sunday services.

A special invitation to former members and attendants of the church has been extended by the pastor. The Rev. Mr. Schauer will speak on "The Faith By Which We Live."

The Youth Fellowship, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Zeller, will meet Sunday evening at 6:30. Later the church will join with other churches in observance of Reformation Day at the Lutheran Church at 7:30 p.m.

A midweek service of prayer and Bible study is held each Wednesday evening at 7:15, the pastor reminded.

Christin Church To Observe Reformation Day

This coming Sunday marks the 433rd Anniversary of the Protestant Reformation. Protestant Churches in most of the Christian world will celebrate this important historical event in the history of the church.

Rev. Cecil J. England, pastor of the Christian Church, will preach Sunday morning at 10:50 on the theme, "Perform—The Test of Reform."

At the time Martin Luther nailed his 95 theses on the church door in Germany, the church was greatly in need of reformation of its whole character.

The modern church needs to be constantly alert to its own evils and sins. It must also become a positive witness to the aggressive virtues and graces of the Christian religion. The performance test is the surest way to know if reformation has taken place in the church or in individual life, according to Rev. England.

Church to Open Back to God Revival Service

DR. HARRY E. FISHER
 ... Brings Message

Dr. Harry E. Fisher will open a "Back to God Prophetic Revival" at the Boursquare church at 1207 El Prado with a message at the Sunday evening service beginning at 7:30. It was announced by the church pastors, Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Pedersen.

Revival services will be conducted by Dr. Fisher nightly except Mondays, the pastors said.

Assisting the revivalist in the services will be Billy Barnes, described by the Pedersens as the Western Gospel Tenor.

"Dr. Fisher can be expected to present an intensely militant message dealing with the prophetic Word of God in relation to present day events," according to Rev. Pedersen.

He has made a thorough investigation into Communism and links his findings with the Word of God.

Some of the topics on which he will speak include "The Prophetic Destiny of Soviet Russia," "The Secret Plan of Communism to Take Over the USA," and "The Most Dangerous Thing That Could Happen to America Today."

New Community Sunday School to Meet in Park

A community Sunday school is being organized to meet each Sunday afternoon in the Recreation Hall in the Torrance Park from 2:30 to 4:30. It was announced this week.

Organized under the direction of Rev. S. O. Whitman, a resident of Torrance for the past six years, the Sunday School will be open to anyone.

'Michael and Mary' To Be Aired Sunday

"Michael and Mary," co-starring Joan Fontaine and Herbert Marshall, is the October 29 presentation of United States Steel's Sunday evening dramatic series, "The Theatre Guild on the Air," via NBC's coast-to-coast network at 5:30 p.m.

COMMUNITY HAS A HEART
 A community is more than just houses and people. It has a heart... our Community Chest. We must have aid for the sick, for homeless children, for desperate people. We must develop good citizenship in our youth. Help raise the funds for this work in the single annual Red Feather appeal.

Community Church Sets Potluck Dinner, Social

A potluck dinner and social following services Sunday have been scheduled to honor Rev. Russell Ellstrom, new pastor of the Hammerton Tract Community Church at 20520 Elliott.

Held each fifth Sunday, this week's social program will be under the direction of Bernard Hopper. Guest artist Phil Boller, a tenor soloist from the Trinity Methodist Church of Los Angeles, will appear on the program along with talent of the area.

The program will begin at 2:30 following the dinner.
